"My Little Loves" is a short narrative about the author's pets, mostly felines, and how she and they loved and lived. The author nursed them through sicknesses, and grieved deeply when Harley just would not accept her as his Human. She panicked when Sheba got out of the house, and rejoiced when he was reunited with her. Her love of cats blossomed from a very young age and has only grown over time. My Little Loves is a heart-warming story for all animal lovers, especially those who have been chosen and are owned by their cats.

A latest edition of a best-selling reference features a new design and expanded information on the preschooler years, in a guide that covers topics ranging from infant care and food allergies to sleeping habits and autism. Original.

In this good-night book that explains how a variety of animals go to sleep, the sun has set and the whole family has gone to bed, except for their dog, Conrad. Curious to find out if anyone else is awake, he wanders far and wide through fields and forests, across lakes and oceans only to find all creatures fast asleep. Conrad is wide-awake, although counting a herd of snoring sheep does make him drowsy! Is everyone asleep? Marcellus Hall's lush nighttime scenes glow with warmth in this playful bedtime story, which features a variety of land and sea creatures, and is narrated by a funny little goggle-eyed pug who will steal readers' hearts.
